ARIYAMANGALAM PARISH

We have formed three prayer groups in the parish. A large number of widows, mostly young, came together to reflect on their life. They appreciated the unity that resulted from it.

A small saving scheme was started in our school. Nearly 147 students collected about Rs. 65,000 and Fr. P. Susai, Rector generously contributed a good amount of money to encourage the students. On the feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus a large number of people turned up for Mass and offered themselves to the Sacred Heart.

VOCATION CAMPS - 2010

A year-long travel, constant communication and meticulous planning by Fr. Paulraj, the Vocation

Promoter yielded fruit in the vocation camps. Forty-five and fifty-five young motivated students participated in the Xth and the XIIth std, camps respectively, from 14 dioceses of Tamil Nadu. We immensely thank our Schools namely St. Arulanandar H.S.S. Oriyur, Carmel H.S.S. Nagercoil, De Britto H.S.S. Devakottai and St Mary's H.S.S. Madurai for sending their XII Std students for the vocation camp held in Dindigul and St Mary's H.S.S. Dindigul & Maduari, Loyola H.S.S. Kuppayanallur, St Xavier's H.S.S. Thoothukudi and St Joseph's Tiruchi for sending their X Std students for the vocation camp held in Madurai. Heartfelt thanks to the vocation facilitators for promoting vocations in their respective Schools. We hope this good work will continue in all our schools in the future also.

The students were introduced to different ministries by Jesuits from different Commissions of the Province. A few lay persons, women religious and a diocesan priest shared with the students their expectation of a Jesuit and the contribution of Jesuits to the Church. Fr. Provincial talked to the students about the Chennai Mission.

The students exhibited their cultural talents and won the appreciation of the audience. In both the camps, the vibrant and the grace-filled retreat of Fr X. Savarimuthu marked the culmination. We owe special thanks to St. Mary's, Dindigul and Madurai Communities for their hospitality.

SUMMER MEET -2010

This year the Summer Meet was christened இணையம் 2010. Scholastics generously came forward to serve in as many as 27 different places in Tamil Nadu to conduct camps for students/animators/religious/teachers etc. from 28 April to 15 May. In the Scholastics Meet at Shembaganur, we delved into the topic “வன்முறை போரുകളும்...வாழ்வரிமை வேர்களும்...” (Roots of violence and struggle for human rights) keeping the Sri Lankan Tamil's issue and the Maoists, fighting the Indian government as the backdrop. Experts from different walks of life enabled us to get engrossed with these problems and understand the psyche of the people ravaged by war. The meet was well organized and clinically professional under the proficient guidance of Fr Britto Peter and Fr Joseph Xavier. The annual retreat was preached by Fr Michealraj and guided by Frs. Alangaram, Edward Jeganathan and Illango Xavier. The points were gripping, thought-provoking and gave clarity of goal in one's life in the Society of Jesus.

TERTIANSHIP, SHEMBAGANUR

On the 1st of June 21 tertians, came from 15 Provinces, on the 01st of June. Frs. Michael Alosani and John Joseph, the Tertian Instructors welcomed them warmly and initiated them in to the six-month spiritual ICU, the Jesuit tertianship. A historical overview of Kodaikanal combined with a darshan of the hills was rendered by Frs Edward Jaganathan and S. Arockiam the House superior who extended a joyous welcome with a grand dinner on the occasion of the Feast of the Sacred Heart.

Having imbibed the Ignatian spirit through reading of his Autobiography, Letters and Spiritual Journal 21 tertians along with their instructors went on a pilgrimage to Vedallai, the martyrdom site of Venerable Anthoni Criminali, St. John de Britto Shrine, Oriyur and the tomb of Rev Fr. Louie Leveil and returned truly grace-filled. The intensive journal retreat guided by Fr. Korko Moses led them deep into themselves, facilitating in them a holistic understanding. It was a worthy preparation to the Ignatian long retreat begun on 28 June. We solicit your earnest prayers that the tertians and their directors may be led by the Spirit of the Lord and he be propitious to them in their spiritual journey.

CULTURE & COMMUNICATION, LOYOLA

Artists Meet, once again!

The credit for reviving the Artists Meet, after a long gap of nearly three decades, goes to Fr Britto Peter, our PCF. He requested the Jesuit who took the initiative to organize the Jesuit Artists' Meets in the 1970's - Fr M. Amaladoss - to be the Co-ordinator. He endorsed my suggestion not to restrict the Meet just to Jesuit scholastics only but to invite also talented young artists from other religious Congregations. So 10 Jesuit scholastics and 10 Sisters from St Anne's Sisters, Madavaram, Sisters of St. Charles Borromeo and Daughters of Mary Immaculate attended the Artists Meet, held at Dhyana Ashram, Chennai from 1 to 6 June. While the musicians were coached by our 'Sangeetha Vidwan', Fr Amal, the painters were guided by our trained artist, Fr J. Thamburaj and the writers by me. Jesuit artists like Frs. Jerry, Mark, Joe Arun and Yakkan, a writer and publisher, shared their ideas and experiences with the young artists. The meet provided the participants time and inspiration to create in the fields they were talented in and helped them with feedback from experts and colleagues, so that they understood their strengths and drawbacks. On 6 June, the last day of the Meet, at a function presided over by Fr Britto Peter, the young artists displayed their talents and skills and impressed everyone. (Visit our website to look at the photographs) In their feedback the participants expressed their desire that the unique and very helpful Artists Meet become an annual event. They believe that this initiative would inspire, encourage and train young religious artists, who would use their talents in a professional manner and come up with creations of true artistic merit that would help them in their mission to serve God's people. Fr Britto Peter has promised to do whatever is required.

G – 70

We, the Novitiate Companions, belonging to the 1970 batch at Beschi, have christened ourselves as G-70. Thanks to the continued interest and initiative of Fr. Jerry we make it a point to meet once in two years without fail.

The purpose of such an endeavour is: being together, feeling together, sharing our experiences and expressing our concerns regarding the recent happenings in general, and in particular, regarding our Province issues.

This time we met at Rayapuram in May, 2010. Br. Arulanandam had made arrangements for making our meeting comfortable. We had a relaxing, refreshing and enriching daylong session.

The heart-revealing sharing of each one of us confirmed our ministerial maturity and affirmed our apostolic solidarity. In fact, it was a source of strength to all the participants and we got geared to greater commitment and closer companionship.

Of course, certain concerns at the Province level emerged spontaneously during our discussions:

- The unhealthy and unfriendly climate that prevails in some of our major and institutionalized communities.
- The power-struggles and the group-pressures that are in some of our communities.
- The need for a Province-commission for ecological concerns

One unique and useful feature in our G-70 is the JB-MG Fund for the poor.

In the name of late Frs. Joe Britto and M. Gnanapragasam (who were our Novitiate Companions) we have instituted a fund, to which every one of us contributes. The deserving needy will be helped.

FR.A. LOURDURAJ FROM TANZANIA

The last two months kept me busy with teaching and guiding three eight-day retreats. I was offering the novices here a course on Inter-religious Dialogue, a topic they had never heard of before. They enjoyed the classes. Two of the novices are now in Satya Nilayam doing Philosophy. Muslims are a minority in the eastern African countries. Though there are no major clashes between Christians and Muslims, yet they harbour a lot of prejudices.

Eight of our second year novices whom I was guiding through an 8-day retreat at Camaldolese monastery at Ngorongoro towards the end of June, will be pronouncing their First Vows on Friday, July 2. Preparations are in full swing for that day. There are more than ten novitiates of different Religious Congregations in Arusha. The formators organise jointly a number of seminars for the novices, on an average two per month, on various relevant topics. About a hundred novices will be participating in each of these seminars. We are expecting eleven first years to join us on July 10, from four different countries. As for the climate, it is winter here, as cold as Ooty in December. Best wishes to all.
